RESOLUTION TO AMEND INSTITUTE POLICY

Branch/Aronui Tomua/Komiti Pasifika/Area Council: North Shore Branch

Adopted by Meeting on: 27 June 2019

RESOLUTION:

That it be noted that we direct the National Executive to formally initiate that NZEI Te Riu Roa investigate the potential benefits and short comings of amalgamation of the NZEI and the PPTA, with the purpose of reporting back to members at the 2020 Annual Meeting / Conference.

PART 2 ARGUMENTS:

We have had successful outcomes of joint initiatives to date. The joint PUM meetings on Collective Negotiations and the Better Funding Better Learning Campaign. The Mega Strike Day and the resulting joint meeting with the Minister of Education / MOE.

The Government takes note of large union voice, positive power and joint initiative campaigns. The media would have less opportunity to confuse the general public and one union policy would be clearer, fairer and more transparent.

The collective agreements would be standardised across the sectors and would eliminate parity disparity in pay scale, units, non-contact time and conditions. Support Staff are already part of NZEI on PPTA sites, a united union would avoid confusion and anomalies.

Membership would increase and enhanced collaboration, whitiwhiti whakaaro. This would mean we review our current structures, ethos and wellbeing policies as a union.

Proposed by DJ Goris
Seconded by Cherie Gurney

PART 3 COSTING:

Long term commitment. A National Office budgeted item. Membership online consultation

Date AC/Branch/AT/KP meeting endorsed: 27 June North Shore Branch meeting
